New York, NY – September 19, 2003 – Arts for Humanity organizes their first of a series of upcoming events, Music Momentum.

Music Momentum, a benefit concert featuring original opuses and adapted works by local artists utilize the essence of music as the momentum to help further the human spirit. In a time when the social-political and socio-cultural climate is accumulating an apathetic precipitation, Arts for Humanity organizes this music fest to alleviate the residue of such sentiments.

Arts for Humanity (AFH) a non-profit, non-partisan organization committed to serving under-privileged/represented/supported artists of all disciplines. AFH invests in pivotal artists with opportunities to practice their talents in a worry-free environment. A mandate of AFH is to establish a junction for artists to foster a working relationship with the general public. As an instrument of cultivation, AFH provides a vital forum for non-commercial representation artists a chance for exposure. AFH's ultimate objective is to harbour an opportunity for creative talents to succeed. And on September 30, 2003 at The Holiday Inn, 138 Lafayette Street, New York, NY 10013, we invite the press to meet the people involved with Music Momentum and AFH at 7:00 p.m.
